Unfavorable Weather and Strength in Markets Influences Wheat Advance.

Range is Narrow in Oats and the Trade Local-Demand for Lard Was the Feature in the CHICAGO, Sept. 18 -Unfavorable weather from the northwest and strength in the markets of that section were influential in an advance in wheat today, October closing 1/4 %c over yesterday. Corn closed the higher and oats a shade lower. Provisions closed unchanged to 174c higher. Wheat opened nervous and easier, October at 76% 976%c, because of Liverpool's fallure to respond to the advance here yesterday and because the predicted rains yesterday and because the predicted fains for the northwest failed to materialize. There was a considerable amount of profit taking at the start, but the offerings were well taken and the market gradually worked up to The. Bradstreet's report of an increase in the world's visible of 5.118,000 bu, caused more selling later, but meantime the northwest markets had turned strong and the stuff was readily absorbed. When shorts tried to get back some of their sales ther found a very stiff array of holders and the price was bidden sharply up to The. The close was firm. October 1423c higher at 7523173c. Cosh sales here were reported at 200,000 bu. New York reported 38 loads taken for the other side. Clearances in wheat and flour were side. Commared with 1,657,000 bu, last year. Minneapolis and Dubuth reported 505 cars, against 601 last week and 1,355 a year ago. Local receipts were 530 cars. Con was dull and devoid of speculative interest. It was also inclined to seek a lower level because of casy cables, large receipts, freer offerings and good conditions for the maturing crop west. Trade was largely of a scalping character. Receipts were 530 cars. October corn sold between 53%c and 35%c, closing %c higher at 35%c. for the northwest failed to materialize. tween 33%c and 35%c, closing %c higher at 35%c.

Outs were dull, the range narrow and the trade local. October sold between 21%c and 21%c and closed a shade down at 21% 21%c. Receipts were 38% cars.
The demand for 'ard was the feature in the provisions market. The small stocks of this commodity caused covering by shorts and as packers were also buyers the market advanced. October pork sold between $12.25 and $12.62% and closed 10% 12%c over yesterday at $12.15. October lard between $1.7% and $6.20. closing 17%c higher at $7.7% and October ribs between $7.45 and $7.37%c. With the close unchanged at $7.37%c. 40% cars; out, $25 cars; corn, $40 cars; oats, 235 cars, hogs, 28.000 head.

BOSTON. Sept. 18.—Although there has been considerable inquiry and a good sample business done in the wool market here this week, the sales are the smallest that have been recorded during the past three months. The continued duliness tends to weaken the market, but dealers are loath to cut prices. Manufacturers continue to buy only what wool they require to keep their mills in operation. Territory heads the list in the small business transacted. Fine medium and line staple in scoureds call for 48626, while strictly staple lots are quoted at 52555. Fleece wools are slow and in the absence of business prices are nominal. Australian wools held here are moderate, with slow sale and steady values. SHEEP—There was a fairly liberal run of sheep and lambs here today, but the quality of the sheep in particular was nothing extra. The better grades of sheep were in active demand on the part of killers and the market as a result was a little stronger. Lambs, however, did not more quite so freely, as Chicago reports were none too favorable and the feeling was a little easier.
